About ExHILP

The 6th Extremely High Intensity Laser Physics Conference (ExHILP 2025) is hosted by the ELI ERIC, ELI Beamlines Facility in Dolní Břežany, Czech Republic from 1 September to 5 September 2025. The conference combines theory, experiment, and computer simulations of laser-matter and laser-vacuum interactions at the highest intensities.

This ExHILP conference edition focuses on Strong Field Quantum Electrodynamics (SFQED) with applications to astrophysics and fundamental science with high-power lasers and novel sources of high brightness electromagnetic radiation. Experiments will include multi-Petawatt-class laser interactions in plasmas, beams of ultra-relativistic particles, and high energy photons. Previous conferences were hosted in Heidelberg \(2015\), Lisbon \(2017\), Stanford (2019), Jena (2021) and Gwangju \(2023\).

About the Extreme Light Infrastructure (ELI)

The Extreme Light Infrastructure is the world's largest and most advanced collection of high-power lasers. As an international user facility dedicated to multi-disciplinary science and research applications, ELI provides access to world-class high-power, high-repetition-rate laser systems and enables cutting-edge research in physical, chemical, materials, and medical sciences, as well as breakthrough technological innovations.

Venue – ELI Beamlines Facility

The event venue ELI Beamlines Facility is situated in the growing municipality of Dolní Břežany, only 15 km away from the city. The ELI Beamlines building complex consists of three main units: an administrative building, a multi-functional building and a laser research building. These units are physical linked through their respective sub-building wings facilitating communication and creating the atmosphere of an academic campus within the complex. The Facility accommodates over 300 staff.
