ENFORCEMENT OF THE RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The Controller would like to inform the Data subjects that they are entitled to exercise certain rights (set out in Chapter III. of the GDPR) related to their personal data processed by the Controller by submitting an e-mail to the following address: adatvedelem@eli-alps.hu or by sending a written request via post to the following address: H-6728 Szeged, Wolfgang Sandner u. 3., Hungary (to ELI-HU).

Please note that the Controller will be able to respond to such requests within the timeframes indicated below only if the Data subjects properly identify themselves when exercising their rights, otherwise, if the Data subjects do not identify themselves properly, the Controller may refuse to fulfil the requests.

ELI-HU will respond to the requests related to the processing of the personal data of the Data subjects in writing without undue delay and in any event within 1 month of receipt of the request. This timeframe may be extended with an additional 2 months for a total length of 3 months, should such requests prove to be particularly complex. In this case, ELI-HU always informs the Data subjects about the extension of the timeframe.

Where the Data subject makes the request by electronic form means, the information shall be provided by electronic means where possible, unless otherwise requested by the Data subject. When requested by the Data subjects, the information may be provided orally, provided that the identity of the Data subjects is proven by other means.

As a general rule ELI-HU provides information free of charge. Where requests from a Data subject are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, ELI-HU may either: (a) charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or communication or taking the action requested; or (b) refuse to fulfil the request.

Right to Information:

Data subjects are entitled to request information on the processing of their personal data. The response shall cover the information specified in Article 15 (1) of the GDPR, insofar as the information of the Data subject cannot be refused by law.

ELI-HU shall take appropriate measures to provide the Data subject all the information concerning the processing of personal data referred to in Articles 13 and 14 of the GDPR and notification in accordance with Articles 15 to 22 and Article 34 of the GDPR shall be provided in a concise, transparent, comprehensible and easily accessible form, in a clear and comprehensible manner.

The notification is, in principle, free of charge, and ELI-HU may charge a fee only in the case specified in Article 12 (5) (a) of the GDPR.

ELI-HU shall reject the request for information only for the reasons specified in Article 12 (5) (b) of the GDPR, and this may only be done in writing, with due justification and appropriate information.

Right to Correction and Deletion (right to be forgotten):

Inaccurate data shall be corrected by the Controller and shall take steps to delete the processed personal data if the reasons set out in Article 17 of the GDPR exist.

Data subjects shall have the right to request the deletion of the personal data concerning them without undue delay and the Controller shall delete the personal data concerning them without undue delay, in particular if one of the following reasons exists:

- personal data are no longer required for the purpose for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- Data subjects withdraw their consent and there is no other legal basis of the processing;
- Data subjects object to the processing and there is no overriding legitimate reason for the processing or the Data subjects object to the processing for the direct acquisition of business;
- personal data have been processed unlawfully;
- personal data were collected in connection with the provision of information society services to children under the age of 16.

Right to object to the processing:

Data subjects are entitled to object to the processing of their personal data at any time by submitting a request to the Controller. The Controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the one of the Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the Data subjects or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims in accordance with Article 21 of the GDPR.

Right to restrict the processing:

In accordance with Article 18 of the GDPR the Data subjects have the right to request the Controller to restrict the processing of their personal data if

- the Data subject disputes the accuracy of the personal data (in this case, the restriction applies to the period of time that allows the Controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data);
- the processing is unlawful and the Data subject opposes the deletion of the data and instead requests that their use be restricted;
- the Controller no longer needs personal data for the purpose of the processing, but the Data subject requests it in order to submit, enforce or protect legal claims.

Restriction of processing means that the Controller do not processes the personal data affected by the restriction, except for storage, or only to the extent to which the Data subject has consented, or the Controller may, in the absence of such consent, processes the data necessary to protect the rights of another natural or legal person or in the overriding public interest of the Union or of a Member State of the European Union.

The Right to Data Portability:

In the course of the data processing activities of the Controller recorded in this present data protection information, no data processing activity is carried out that would require the provision of data portability.

Automated Decision Making in Individual Cases, Including Profiling:

Automated decision-making does not take place during the Controller's data processing activity described in this present data protection information notice.

Right to Compensation for Damage Caused by Unlawful Data Processing:

The Controller shall also reimburse the damage caused to others by the unlawful processing of the Data subjects' personal data and by the breach of data security requirements, furthermore the damages caused by the personal data breach by the Controller. The Controller shall be released from liability for the damage caused and the obligation to pay damages if the Controller proves that the damage or the violation of the Data subjects' personal rights was caused by an unavoidable cause outside the scope of the processing. Likewise, the Controller does not compensate the damages if those were caused by the intentional or grossly negligent conduct of the injured party.

Right to Legal Remedy:

The relevant legal remedy or complaint may be addressed by the Data subject to the Controller's following e-mail address: adatvedelem@eli-alps.hu directly or to the Data Protection Authority of Hungary (ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu; 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa u. 9-11.) or to the European Data Protection Board's e-mail address: EDPB-DPO@edpb.europa.eu. According to Article 79 of the GDPR proceedings against the Controller shall be brought before the courts of the Member State where the Controller has an establishment. Alternatively, such proceedings may be brought before the courts of the Member State where the Data subject has his or her habitual residence, unless the Controller is a public authority of a Member State acting in the exercise of its public powers.
